He is a lifelong foxhunter having started hunting at age 6 with Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Foxhounds in Unionville, PA. He later worked for two Hall of Fame steeplechase trainers and rode as an amateur timber jockey from 1987 to 2013. In 2008 he was appointed to the PA Racing Commission and served until 2011. In 2011 he was appointed the Executive Director of the PA Horse Breeders Association and oversaw the administration of one of the country's largest breeding programs. In 2014, he moved to Virginia with his family and in the fall of that year he was appointed the first Executive Director of the Virginia Equine Alliance.
